Annual Report of COE for the Academic year 2020 - 2021

The Controller of Examinations (COE) Office acts as the heart of an Autonomous Institution. COE office of Government Arts College(Autonomous), Salem-7 is functioning for the effective conduct of examinations, evaluation of the answer scripts, publication of results, printing and issue of mark statements and applying for provisional and degree certificates in Periyar University, Salem. Apart from examination related activities, COE office conducts Board of Studies meetings, Academic Council meetings and Governing Body Meetings.

In the academic year 2020-2021, BOS meetings for all the boards were conducted on 27-07-2020 to retain the same syllabus due to Covid 19 Pandemic scenario. As per the course structure framework designed by Curriculum Development Cell, the boards have developed a curriculum with all essential components catering to the current needs to improve employability skills. This new curriculum implementing resolutions were finalized in the BOS meeting conducted between 3-2-2021 and 10-02-2021.

Due to COVID 19 Pandemic, as per the government directions, the odd semester examinations for the academic year 2020-21 was conducted in February/March 2021 and Even Semester in May/June 2021. The semester examinations were conducted through Online mode as per the guidelines issued by the Government and Periyar University, Salem.

In the academic year 2020-21, 1309 UG final year students and 331 PG final year students applied and out of whom 1291 UG and 326 PG final year students appeared for the final exams. 1275 UG students and 326 PG students passed the examinations and received their respective degrees from Periyar University. The overall pass percentage is 99.01.

The College Academic Council meeting was conducted on 12.08.2020. Exam fees were revised in our college as per Periyar University's new exam fee structure. The Governing Body Meeting was conducted on 21-01-2021 and was decided to appoint two Deputy Controllers of Examinations to speed up the examination processes. Result passing Board meeting was held on 16-08-2021 for the even (June/July) semester examinations.
